Welcome

Dear Competitors, Families and Supporters,

Welcome to the 2025 Yamaha Australian National Band Championships! This Easter weekend will see some of the finest musicians from across Australia come together to compete for the title of National Champion Band and Soloist. Our adjudicators for the Championships represent a wealth of knowledge from within the professional, community and school band scenes. We are also very fortunate to have a team of very talented accompanists and I thank them all for their contribution to our Championships.

Events like this are not possible without the tireless work of volunteers behind the scenes. We've been fortunate to have a dedicated and hardworking group of volunteers who have been preparing for this event for over 12 months. We are incredibly grateful for all those who gave their time and skills to bring this event to life.

We would also like to take this moment to acknowledge the contribution of our Sponsors. Without their generous support we would be unable to continue running this great event. We would particularly like to mention the support from our Platinum sponsor, Yamaha Music Australia who have been with us every step of the way and have gone above and beyond to make this event the highlight of the banding calendar.

We wish all competitors the very best for their performances and can't wait to hear you all!

Megan Stapleton
President
Victorian Bands' League

Welcome from Yamaha Music Australia

Welcome to the Yamaha Australian National Band Championships for 2025!

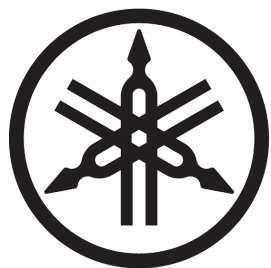

Like you, we at Yamaha are thrilled to be part of this year's event. Supporting music-making in all its forms is at the heart of what we do, and the National Band Championships is a brilliant example of community, creativity, and connection through music. From the very first notes, to performances on the national stage, supporting musicians is at the core of what drives us at Yamaha. That's why you'll find our team across the Yamaha Australian National Band Championships – on stage, announcing, managing the flow of performances, providing professional development for band directors, or in the trade hall supporting our fantastic retail partners. We're also especially excited to welcome Margie Antrobus, a talented conductor, performer, educator, and proud member of the Yamaha family, joining us all the way from Norway as an adjudicator.

This year, we'd also love to hear from you! We're running a short survey to learn more about the banding community and how we can better support it. Just by completing the survey, you'll go in the draw to win a set of Yamaha True Wireless earbuds. You'll find the QR code in this program and at trade displays throughout the venue. A sincere thank you goes to the incredible people who make this event possible – the Victorian Bands' League, the Organising Committee, the National Band Council of Australia, every performer, supporter, and behind-the-scenes hero. Events like this don't just happen - They're built by passionate people who believe in what music can do, and we're incredibly grateful to be part of it. To learn more about our work supporting musicians at every step of their musical journey, visit greatstartyamaha.com, or have a chat with one of our team who will be at and around the event all weekend. Thank you, and we hope you enjoy the Yamaha Australian National Band Championships 2025!

Dr. Heather Aitken

Dr Heather Aitken (BAMus, AMusA, GDipEd, MME, PhD) is an experienced music educator, clinician and adjudicator. She worked as an adjunct professor at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh, where she taught classes in Music Education, directed the Tuba/Euphonium studio, and conducted the Symphonic Band. Dr Aitken has been engaged as a clinician and adjudicator in the USA and Australia at events including Wisconsin School Music Association festivals, the Victorian Schools Bands Festival, and the Australian National Band Championships. Growing up in Townsville, the local brass band was Heather's first quality ensemble experience. The intersection of her brass band background, experiences as a tuba player, research interests in gender-stereotyping in musical instrument selection and conducting, as well as instrumental music recruiting practices have culminated in Heather dedicating herself to advocating for community banding, as well as working to increase the number of tuba players in the world. Heather currently works for Education Queensland, teaching brass, and conducting wind and brass bands at Brisbane State High School. She is also the Brass Pedagogy Coach for North Coast Region. Heather is the Musical Director of Sunshine Brass.

Margie S. Antrobus

Margie S. Antrobus is a conductor, teacher at Manger Folkehøgskule, adjudicator and baritone player. She is an experienced conductor and has conducted bands such as Hordaland County Youth brass band, Kleppe Musikklag, is resident conductor at Flesland Musikklag and a member of the conductor team for the Manger folkehøgskule brass band course. Conducting highlights are winning 1st section of the entertainment contest Siddis brass with Flesland Musikklag in 2022, and representing her father by conducting Nimrod at Manger Musikklag's centenary anniversary. Among contests she has adjudicated are the Dutch Brass Band Nationals, Danish Brass Band nationals, Brass In Concert, and the European brass band championship. As a player, Margie is hugely respected in the brass band community. She got her Bachelor in band musicianship from The University of Salford, a Master of Music at university of Manchester and has played Solo Baritone with the award winning Yorkshire Building Society Band, as well as spending several years with Manger Musikklag. She is also a member of the Yamaha Neo Ensemble and a Yamaha ambassador.

Margie S Antrobus is adjudicating at the 2025 Yamaha Australian National Band Championships thanks to the generous support of Fine Music and Yamaha Music Australia

James Blackford

Based in Melbourne, James Blackford is a Besson and Denis Wick Sponsored euphonium performer and educator. He is the solo euphonium player with the Royal Australian Air Force Band, casual professor of euphonium at the Melbourne Conservatorium of Music, and has performed with the Melbourne, Queensland, Tasmanian and New Zealand Symphony Orchestra's. He holds a Master of Music from the Royal Northern College of Music, in Manchester, where he won the college's concerto competition and received the highly commended award at their prestigious Gold Medal final. James' studies were proudly supported by the Australian Music Foundation, through the AMF Overseas Study Award, and the Tait Memorial Trust, through the Tait White Loewenthal Award. He is the first euphonium player ever to receive an award from either foundation. Whilst in the U.K., James won the Philip Jones Brass Prize at the Royal Over-Seas League's Annual Music Competition. He was later invited to compete in the competitions 'Overseas Final', where he was awarded the ROSL trophy for the most Outstanding Musician from Overseas and invited to be a featured artist on the Philip and Dorothy Green Young Artist Scheme. Currently principal euphonium of Darebin City Brass Preston Band, James has also played with many of the world's leading brass bands, most notably The Cory Band at the 2023 European Championships, in Malmö, Sweden.

Dr. Jemima Bunn

Over several years, Jemima has directed vibrant and dynamic music programs in several Victorian government secondary schools, coordinating the classroom, instrumental and ensemble components of their Programs. Jemima has a passion for ensemble direction, having conducted ensembles at school level from beginner to advanced levels. She was privileged to take the Blackburn High School Symphonic Band at the Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic in Chicago in 2017. Jemima is Leader of Learning in music curriculum at Carey Grammar School, working with both teachers and students to develop positive experiences in all things instrumental, classroom and ensemble. She is Director of Brolga Music Publishing Company and through this role she promotes the work of Australian composers. Jemima has been active in the Australian Band and Orchestra Directors' Association (ABODA) over several years, serving as a committee member, president and vice president at state and national levels. In 2006, she received an ABODA Victoria Excellence Award and in 2018 a National Citation of Excellence for her work in music education.

Nick Matherne

Nick Matherne's endeavors as an artist, teacher, and researcher center around cultivating music engagement for performers and listeners of all ages. He envisions a world where all people have access to meaningful musical experiences as singers, players, and audience members throughout their lives. As the instructor of the Melbourne New Horizons Band Adult Beginner Class, he strives to make these experiences possible no matter when someone decides to start their musical journey.

As Artistic Director of the Victorian Youth Symphony Orchestra, Nick works to create a collaborative environment which allows musicians to articulate a shared artistic vision. His projects place the people with whom he works at the heart of performances, from facilitating interactive group improvisations to highlighting the extra-musical skills and artistry of his fellow musicians. He has performed as a soloist, chamber musician, and ensemble player on trombone, euphonium, and tuba and has conducted and coached brass players of all levels.

Nick is a relentless advocate for lifelong musicianship in all aspects of his work and has presented internationally as a clinician, researcher, and music teaching specialist. He has taught secondary music in Maryland, Virginia, Hawai'i, and Australia, where is a PhD candidate in Music Psychology and Performance Science at the Melbourne Conservatorium of Music examining motivation for lifelong musicianship. His recent publication, Harnessing the Power of Feedback to Improve Student Learning in Music was the lead article in the September 2023 issue of the Music Educators Journal.

Ken Waterworth

As an accomplished euphonium player, Ken Waterworth joined The Salvation Army's premier music ensemble, the Melbourne Staff Band, in 1979 and was a featured soloist on the band's recordings, major concert and overseas tours. He was appointed musical director of the band in June 1994 and retired from that role in 2024 after 30 years of outstanding leadership. As musical director of the Melbourne Staff Band, Ken achieved the highest standards of musicianship and music ministry, providing an outstanding model for The Salvation Army bands throughout Australia and around the world. Throughout his period of leadership, Ken was recognised world-wide as an innovator, which saw the Melbourne Staff Band at the cutting edge of brass band music making in The Salvation Army. Ken's international reputation for excellence in music ministry, has resulted in conducting opportunities in the United States of America, Africa, China and the United Kingdom. His passion for mentoring and developing young musicians has continued to be a priority following a successful teaching career, where he was recognised with numerous awards for his outstanding leadership and development in music education. Ken established The Salvation Army's National Youth Band in 2013, nurturing some of our most talented young brass and percussion players. He continues to enjoy the opportunity to share his love for music making with musicians, young and old, both in Australia and overseas.

Lara Wilson

Originally from Perth, Lara attained a Bachelor of Music from WAAPA before moving to Melbourne to undertake a postgraduate diploma at the University of Melbourne followed by a Master of Music (performance). Lara plays regularly with the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra and Orchestra Victoria. As well as orchestral percussion, Lara is also passionate about musical theatre and has been the percussionist on "Hairspray" national tour (John Frost), "Shrek" (John Frost), "Ragtime" (Production Company), "Muriel's Wedding" (Global Creatures), "Mama Mia" (Michael Coppel), "Wicked" (Crossroads/John Frost) and "TINA, The Tina Turner Musical" (TEG Dainty). Lara teaches percussion at Loreto Mandeville Hall Toorak and is a regular percussion tutor at Melbourne Youth Orchestras.
